Wat Nong Suea School

Wat Nong Suea School is a public primary school located in Mueang District, Nakhon Pathom Province, Thailand. The school provides education for students from Kindergarten 2 to Primary Grade 6. It is committed to holistic student development, emphasizing academic excellence, moral values, life skills, and community engagement. The school promotes a safe and supportive learning environment, encourages active learning, and collaborates closely with parents and the local community to enhance students' learning experiences and overall well-being.